Teagle Foundation

Type	Private foundation
Priorities	• Liberal arts education access • Humanities and general education • High school and associate to baccalaureate pathways
Link to Grants	https://www.teaglefoundation.org/Call-for-Proposals/Current-Initiatives
Fast Facts about Funding History	• Established in 1944 with a focus on improving society around the world, with a special focus on higher education • Visit their grants database to learn more about the types of projects and typical award sizes for each program
Notable Grant Opportunity	Cornerstone: Learning for Living This initiative aims to reinvigorate the role of the humanities in general education, and in doing so, expose a broad array of students to the power of the humanities; help students of all backgrounds build a sense of belonging and community; strengthen the coherence and cohesiveness of general education; and increase teaching opportunities for humanities faculty. Program implementation grants of varying amounts, up to $300,000 over 24 months, will be made. Planning grants up to $25,000 over 6-12 months are strongly encouraged to lay the groundwork for successful curricular reform and faculty professional development.
