We are excited to announce that NIH has posted the updated NIH SuRE grant opportunities (see below). These are excellent opportunities for NSU faculty, and we already have success winning a grant through this new funding mechanism. Deadlines are set for May and September for the next three years.

- For faculty who have never won an external research award as PI/PD: SuRE-First
- For other faculty without active NIH research grants as PI/PD: SuRE

Don't forget about our extensive grant proposal templates and guides library, where we have a dedicated set of resources for writing NIH grants: <https://www.nova.edu/dor/grant-proposal/index.html>

Have a project idea? Reply to set up a meeting to discuss and work toward a 1-page project summary page to converse with NIH program staff prior to submitting a grant proposal. As NSU's Grant Writing Manager, I am here to support you in your grant seeking.
