

Funding Opportunities from the National Institute of Justice

Sponsor	Grant/Program	Description	Deadline
NIJ	Research and Evaluation on Sentencing and Resentencing	Seeks proposals for rigorous research and evaluation projects that inform our understanding of the impact of sentencing and resentencing policies and prison release frameworks on individuals, communities, and public safety.	5/16/23
NIJ	Research and Evaluation on Hate Crimes	Seeks proposals for rigorous research and evaluation projects that inform efforts to prevent and combat hate crimes and their effects . Specifically, this solicitation seeks proposals to advance knowledge and understanding in the following two categories: (1) preventing and addressing hate crimes; and (2) school-based hate crimes.	5/16/23
NIJ	Research on Juvenile Justice Topics	Seeks proposals for rigorous research and evaluation projects that inform policy and practice in the field of juvenile justice . Specifically, in three categories: Research and evaluation of legislative and administrative policy changes affecting youth involved in the justice system; Research to assess dual system youth data capacity and service delivery across juvenile justice and child welfare systems; and Analysis on the use of the valid court order exception.	5/29/23
NIJ	Youth Mentoring Research and Evaluation	Seeks applications for rigorous youth mentoring research and independent evaluation projects that address one or both of the following two topical areas: 1) barriers/impediments for youth involved in the justice system to access mentoring services, and 2) mentoring programs that serve youth involved in the justice system.	5/30/23
NIJ	Research and Evaluation on Policing Practices, Accountability Mechanisms, and Alternatives	Seeks rigorous, applied research and evaluation projects examining the impact of policing : Police accountability practices; The shifting and sharing of police functions; Police training; and Police officer health and wellness programs on an array of police performance outcomes.	6/6/23